Guidelines for Conduction:

The course will exemplify the budding engineers the Code of Conduct and ethics pertaining to their area and scope of their work. The Instructor/Teacher shall explain the students the importance and impact of the ethics and code of conduct.

Confined to various courses and project/mini-project development the possible vulnerabilities and threats need to be elaborated and the students' participation need to be encouraged in designing such document explicitly mentioning Code of Conduct and Disclaimers.

Suggested set of Activities

- 1. Purpose-Introduce the concept of Professional Code of Conduct
 - Method Using Group Discussion as a platform, ask students to share one practice in their family / home that everyone has to follow. For ex. not wearing footwear in the house, taking a bath first thing in the morning, seeking blessings from elders, etc. Connect this Code of Conduct in their family to one that exists in the professional world
 - Outcome Awareness of profession-specific code of conduct and importance of adherence of that code specified. Ability to express opinions verbally and be empathetic to diverse backgrounds and values
- 2. Purpose-Impress upon the students, the significance of morality
 - Method Role play a professional situation where an engineer is not competent and is trying to copy the work of a colleague and claim credit for that work. Ask observing students to react to that situation. Alternatively, a short video that clearly shows unethical behavior can be played and ask viewers their opinion about the situation. Note to teachers read about Kohlber's theory and Gilligan's theory to understand levels of moral behavior
 - Outcome Incite students to contemplate their own immoral behavior in public space or academic environment (like copying homework or assignment). Will coax students to introspect their own values and encourage them to choose the right path
- 3. Purpose-Highlight the importance of professional ideals like conflict management, ambition, ethical manners and accountability
 - Method Each student will have to write a 200 word essay on any of above mentioned virtues of being a good professional. On evaluation, the top 5 essays can be displayed on the college wall magazine and rewarded if deemed appropriate
 - Outcome Learn to express one's ideas and identify and relate to good virtues. Build writing skills, improve language and gain knowledge about how to write an impactful essay

4. Purpose-Make students aware of proper and globally accepted ethical way to handle work, colleagues and clients

Method – Teacher can form groups of 6 – 7 students and assign them different cases (these can be accessed online from copyright free websites of B-school content)

Outcome - Develop group communication skills. Learn to speak up one's opinion in a forum. Cultivate the habit of presenting solution-driven analytical arguments making them contributors in any team.

5. Purpose – Make students aware that technology can be harmful if not used wisely and ethically Method - Conduct a quiz on various ethical dilemmas that are relevant in today's world pertaining to privacy right, stalking, plagiarism, hacking, weaponizing technology, AI, electronic garbage creating environmental hazard etc

Outcome - Make students aware of various adverse consequences of technology development and allow them to introspect on how to use technology responsibly.

6. Purpose - Expose students to professional situations where engineers must use their skills ethically and for the betterment of society and nation

Method – Students in groups of 4 can be given an assignment in the earlier session to present in front of the class one specific case where they felt unethical treatment has been meted out to a person by an engineer - either as a witness, advisor, dishonesty, improper skills testimony etc. The group has to make a short presentation and also suggested plausible solutions to that situation. Q&A from other students must encouraged to allow healthy discussion

Outcome - Become aware of unethical code of conduct in the professional world and how to follow a moral compass especially when one reaches positions of power.

Purpose – Provide an insight into rights and ethical behavior.

Method – Movies like The Social Network can be played and students can be asked to discuss their opinion about collegiality, intellectual property, friendship and professional relationships Outcome - help them look at success stories from an ethical point of view. Develop critical thinking and evaluation of circumstances.

8. Purpose - Make students contemplate about ideal and safe professional environment and decide on making right decisions based on codes of conduct

Method – Students can be asked to write down 5 most important codes of conduct that they feel that every computer engineer should follow. After evaluation by teacher / experts, the collection of codes can be converted into a handbook to be given to every student as a memoir to help them in their professional life.

Outcome - Introspection and think about how to shape the professional environment. Also, when they carry back with them their own codes of conduct, they could feel bound to adhere to these ethics.

Like every year, this year also all the students and faculty members of our College had organized a grand program on the occasion of this 74th Republic Day. The Constitution was adopted by the Indian Constituent Assembly on 26th November 1949 and came into effect on 26th January 1950 with a democratic government system. It was attended by Teaching, Non-teaching faculty members and Students of the college with great enthusiasm.

Then after Mr. Bapu Chandanshive Sir started the session. He guided us that National Voter's Day 2023 theme is 'Nothing Like Voting, I Vote for Sure'. Generally, the electoral commission allows a person to vote in the place where he or she resides or lives. If voting is done from two or more different places it is considered an offense and this should be intimated to the Electoral Commission whenever he or she changes his or her place of living. In other words, we can say that it is a crime. When a person turns 18 years of age, as a citizen of India, he or she can enrol himself or herself as a voter. Also, the Election Commission revises the electoral rolls every five years and also before an election. At the time of voting, it is not necessary to carry a voter ID, you can carry your PAN card, Driver's license, Adhaar Card, etc.

Prof. G. S Patil Sir had given a oath. The event ended with a vote of thanks given by Prof. S. S Aagale.

Self-realization is achieved through a specific type of meditation, resulting in what Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi calls a "moral, united, integrated and balanced" person. One of the core principles of Sahaja Yoga is that each practitioner becomes their own guru.

The term comes from the Sanskrit saha, meaning "with," and ja, meaning "born." The Sahaja Yoga website defines it as "spontaneous union with the Self."
